ABOUT FR. BRENDAN MOSS

Fr. Brendan recently spoke at the "Pausing for Prayer" Day at the Cathedral Church on St. Paul (Springfield, IL), and he received rave reviews for his presentation. His program is sure to be a memorable occasion.

Originally from New York, Fr. Brendan has been with Saint Meinrad Archabbey for over 15 years. As well as receiving his education there, he has been a pastor for three parishes (all at one time) and also a retreat master in Benedictine Spirituality, Celtic Spirituality and Lectio Divina. Fr. Brendan has authored articles on Lectio Divina, and he is currently pursuing his doctoral degree at Aquinas Institute in St. Louis.

Fr. Brendan presents a practical look at an intimate relationship with God from a Celtic perspective that includes love for creation, love of learning, missionary zeal, silence and solitude, the sacred nature of time, finding God in the ordinary, and creating relationships. He delivers this message with sincerity and humor.
