Bishop Martins' First Confirmation

Article and Photos by Mary Ann Denney

Bishop Daniel Martins confirmed his first class of confirmands during his visitation at St. Luke's, Springfield on Sunday, April 10.

The class consisted of ten young people, ranging in age from 12 to 21. Meeting with the class prior to the service, Bishop Martins talked about the significance of the day and asked and answered questions. The church was full for the service, and the bishop's sermon was warmly received. It was also a pleasure to have Mrs. Brenda Martins with us on this important day.

For final preparation before the bishop's visit, the confirmation class met on Saturday, April 2, for a pizza buffet and final instructional session and review. Those participating were: Cory Bond, James Bond, Candace Brewer, LaKeia Crawford, Lucas Denney, Coreyanna Gresham, Alijha Lyons, Allik Lyons, Ethan McQuillan, and Kenya Mimms, all of whom completed the class satisfactorily and were presented for Confirmation.

Bishop Martins first confirmand is Lucas Denney, kneeling. To the left is the Rev. Shawn Denney (Lucas' dad), Bishop Martins, and Larry Embury

Every Sunday after church all the children present are fed lunch (36 recently), and on this special day a meal was provided for everyone present.

St. Luke's is always filled with God's presence and love, but having the bishop present and hearing his words added a special dimension to our worship. It was also a great opportunity to welcome Bishop Martins and his wife to our St. Luke's family.

With a new sign out front and a new coat of paint in the church, St. Luke's was spruced up for the day. Our next project, which should happen soon, is to paint the outside of the building.

From the Bishop

Beloved in Christ,

This is a season of great celebration - Christ is risen from the dead. This is a season of great thanksgiving - death, the mortal enemy of humankind, has been swallowed up in victory. This is a season of great joy - death has been declawed and defanged, and we need no longer fear it. This is a season of eating and drinking and making merry - we have been freed from the grip of sin. This is a season for singing and dancing - Universal Evil itself has been sentenced to oblivion; its days are numbered, and when it goes into the pit of destruction it will carry with it all fear, anxiety, pain, shame, anger—in short, all suffering will be sucked into the eternal black hole of God's redeeming and undying love. This is a season of great hope—all across the world just a few days ago, people renounced their attachment to the realm of sin and death and embraced the kingdom of life and health and peace; they were being born again in the waters of Holy Baptism; they were anointed with the Holy Spirit and marked as Christ's own forever. This is a season of great celebration—Christ is risen from the dead.

Did you keep a holy Lent? Were you faithful in prayer, fasting, and self-denial? Did you read and meditate on God's holy Word? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, and take your place. Has Lent been a struggle for you? Did you lapse from your rule, or fall into sin?

Did you neglect your obligation to private prayer and public worship? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, and take your place. Did you totally ignore Lent, completely blowing it off? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, and take your place.

Have you lived a long life, and known God's mercies to be richly laid out before you whenever you have needed them? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, and take your place. Are you in mid-life, and feeling yourself stretched by having to attend to the needs of both your parents and your children at the same time? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, and take your place. Are you a young person, with more plans than memories, and full of both anxieties and aspirations? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, and take your place.

Are you on this occasion filled with sorrow? Are you grieving a loss—the loss of a loved one, the loss of a dream, the loss of an ideal? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, and take your place. Are you on this occasion tortured by doubt and skepticism, wanting to believe, on these but not finding yourself able to? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, let the faith of those around you carry you to your place. Are you wracked by guilt, feeling yourself unworthy of God's love, unworthy to even come under the roof of His house? If so, there is a banquet table prepared for you, overflowing with God's abundant blessing and infinite merciful forgiveness; come, and take your place—there is absolutely nothing you can do to make God love you any more, and nothing you can do to make God love you any less.

The feast is ready. The table has been prepared. The price has been paid in full. The invitation to the banquet has been sent out. There is a banquet table prepared for us, overflowing with God's abundant blessings; come, let us take our places. This is a season of great celebration—Christ is risen from the dead. Alleluia!

Grace and peace,
+Bishop Daniel

Trickle Up – The ECW Outreach Project Announced

By The Rev. Ann Tofani

Mt. 25: 34-36 “Then the king will say to those at his right hand, “Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.”

There is no prison like that of poverty. There is no pain like the pain of hunger. There should be no strangers in God’s kingdom. When one suffers we all suffer. Matthew calls us who are blessed by the Father to care for those less fortunate. Our inheritance is God’s kingdom. The cost is sharing our blessings.

This year’s Outreach Project is one that may not touch your heart like the solar cookers did, but it is no less a call to aid those less fortunate. I am asking you to look at what God has given to you and to ask yourself, “Can I contribute to help the poorest of the poor to obtain a better quality of life? Will it diminish the quality of my life by sharing with those less fortunate? Do I trust the word of God and his promises?”

Trickle Up is a program for those who live (perhaps survive is a better word) on less than $1 a day. Trickle Up works in Africa, Asia and Central America, and works closely with local partner agencies to implement their model (one of training and seed capital) in order to provide the right resources to start a micro-enterprise to improve quality of life. For every micro-enterprise that Trickle Up helps start or expand, an average of 5.5 people benefit. That means that when 10,000 participants are aided, more than 55,000 people are able to get started on their journey out of poverty - a journey that leads to helping others out of poverty.

We have the means to help establish 100 of these businesses. It would only take $10,000. This, and more, could be accomplished if each person in this diocese contributed $10. We have the means – do we have the desire?

“Truly I tell you, just as you did to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.” (Mt. 40) May we enter into the joy of the Father and reach out in love to help those less fortunate than ourselves.

Checks should be mailed to: Judy Ellison, ECW Treasurer, 122 Hightide Dr., Decatur, IL 62521. On the memo line mark, “Trickle Up.”

At Christ the King’s Celebration of Wholeness and Healing (April 20, 2011), Fr. Desmond Francis spoke of forgiveness. His God-inspired message led me to write the poem entitled, I Am Forgiven.

I Am Forgiven

By Ann Spence

I chose the wood that bore the dying Lord’s weight. I chose the crucifix with emptiness and hate.

I wove the crown of thorns that cut His kingly brow. I knew it was unjust, but I did it anyhow.

I forged the sharp spear that pierced His mortal side. I forged it from my searing wrath and iron pride.

I hammered the nails that fixed Him to the tree. I willingly pounded the nails that day at Calvary.

I gambled for the clothes He wore, though they I did not need. I gambled for the clothes He wore with unrighteous greed.

I built the cross that Christ was crucified on. I built it of my sin. I built the cross that Jesus died on. But, still I am forgiven.
